

Please do not allow cell phones on planes. We are a captive audience and in confined spaces for long periods of time it would be especially frustrating to be forced to listen the ringing of cell phones and half conversation. This is a plea for allowing sanity to prevail on airplanes.